Re: United States v. Park Il Woo
07 Cr. 1161

Dear Judge Pauley:

I represent Il Woo Park in the above-captioned case, which was recently assigned to Your Honor. This morning, Mr. Park pleaded guilty before Magistrate Judge Katz to an information charging him with having made false statements. I write to request three modifications to the terms of his release on bail, which are currently as follows: $150,000 personal recognizance bond with three co-signors, secured by $5000 cash, strict Pretrial Services supervision, surrender of travel documents, travel restricted to the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York, and no contact with officials of the South Korean Government. Mr. Park has been in perfect compliance with the terms of his release.

At this time, I ask that the Court permanently modify Mr. Park's bail to reduce the level of his supervision to "regular" and to allow him to travel to New Jersey, where part of his business is located. I further request that the restriction on contact with officials of the South Korean Government be lifted. Both Assistant U.S. Attorney Jennifer Rodgers, on behalf of the Government, and Mr. Park's Pre-Trial Services Officer, Dennis Khilkevich, consent to this request.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

Application Granted on Consent.
SO ORDERED:

WILLIAM H. PAULEY III U.S.D.J.
